D E D I C A T I O N

On September 9, 1964—the first day of the new school year—students, faculty, and townspeople were saddened by the sudden passing away of our supervising principal, Mr. Frank W. Walp, terminating twenty-five years of faithful, capable service to the schools of our community.

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, Gettysburg College, and Bucknell University, Mr. Walp came to Forty Fort as a teacher in 1933, was promoted to principal in 1936, and rose to supervising principal on May 1, 1939, a rapid rise attesting to an abundance of ability and energy.

Possessing a host of talents other than academic, Mr. Walp distinguished himself as a football coach, a certified football official, and a loyal fan and promoter whose love of athletics was never dimmed by the passing of years. Despite a busy schedule he found time to act as a member of the Board of Directors of the Wilkes-Barre Y.M.C.A. and serve as treasurer for District 2 of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

We, as students, would like to add a few facts that we deem more valuable than the already imposing list. Mr. Walp took a personal interest in the individual student, and, although concerned with the quantity and quality of his education, he was much more deeply concerned with the student's happiness and welfare. Whenever a student had a problem, Mr. Walp gave freely of his time and energy to provide a worthwhile solution. This sincere and friendly hand was grasped gratefully by countless boys and girls and never failed to give encouragement and inspiration. Long after degrees and positions have faded, the memory of his warm, human understanding will be a living monument in the hearts of those who knew him.

We, the seniors of the Forty Fort Junior-Senior High School, dedicate this edition of THE FORT to our friend,

MR. FRANK W. WALP

A D V I S O R S

The success of the Class of 1965 is in part a tribute to our advisors, Miss Joyce Medlock and Mr. Paul Kraye. Though at times the road seemed hard to travel, their constant assistance and kindness helped us ON OUR WAY. We would like to express our appreciation and thanks to two people we will long remember.

THOMAS FRANKLIN KELLY
Student Council President

For the first time in the history of Forty Fort Junior-Senior High School, a member of the student body ran unopposed for the offices of vice-president and president of our Student Council. The unanimous election of Thomas Kelly was a wise choice. Tom won the American Legion Award, the Franklin and Marshall Book Award, the Veterans' of Foreign Wars Speech Contest. In addition to being a consistent honor roll student, he is a member of the National Honor Society. You would think that he'd be too busy for other activities, but this isn't so. Tom has served as Mr. Steltzer's head custodian and recorder for both wrestling and football. He has also participated in nearly every dramatic production of the Class of '65.

The Student Council, of which he is president, has been the recipient of his labors for six years, in which he has held three offices—Recording Secretary, Vice-President, and President. Certainly both the Council and the whole school are the wealthier for Tom's leadership. Our best wishes go to one who can only succeed.

CLASS LEADERS

The success of a class depends largely upon its leaders and primarily upon the president. A president is responsible for uplifting the class spirit, for organizing worthwhile projects, and for keeping the class interested. This awesome responsibility for the Class of 1965 was placed this year on the shoulders of Edward Gieda.

Ed, an avid sports enthusiast, has participated in three sports during his high school years. On the football team he was a formidable guard. Wrestling season found him competing for the 145- and 154-pound positions. Track season saw him competing in the broad jump.

Because of Ed's interest in sports, his other cocurricular activities were limited. He found time, however, to serve on the Student Council for two years. This year he served as the Council's treasurer.

Prior to being elected President of the Class of 1965, Ed had been vice-president. With his fine leadership qualities, he has competently guided the Class of 1965 in all its undertakings the past year. We certainly wish him every success in the future.

EDWARD BERNARD GIEDA
Senior Class President

GIRARD SCHULTZ—Treasurer, JOANN CHANEY—Secretary, ANN SOMMERVILLE—Secretary, EDWARD GIEDA—President, Absent: THOMAS RICHARDS, Treasurer.

The job of class officer is a tiresome, thankless one; yet, no class could succeed without the officers leadership and efforts. The class of 1965 gratefully says THANK-YOU to our leaders.

FORTY

Hampered by injuries throughout the season, our Flyers still managed to compile a very creditable win-loss record and earned the respect of those teams to whom they did lose.

All senior lettermen performed well and received fine support from a number of strong, spirited underclassmen, the nucleus of next year's squad.

This was a team that gave our students something to cheer about, regardless of the final outcome. It was a strong, well balanced team full of surprises (thanks to Coach Steltzer) and loaded with speed. It was also a team that we were proud to call our own; and, in the final analysis, this is what really counts.

A collage of 15 black and white photographs from a 1964 yearbook, depicting various school sports and activities. The photos include football games, basketball, volleyball, and cheerleaders. The collage is arranged in a grid-like fashion with some overlapping images. The top row features a football player in a dark jersey with the number 25, a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 33, and a cheerleader in a white sweater with the number 25. The middle row shows a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 12, a group of football players in dark jerseys with numbers 47, 56, 55, 33, 38, 52, 21, and 78, and a cheerleader in a white sweater with the number 25. The bottom row includes a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 85, a cheerleader in a white sweater with the number 25, a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 8, a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 8, a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 8, and two cheerleaders in white sweaters with the number 25. The photos are set against a dark background.

COACHES: Mr. H. Smith, Mr. B. Zaranski

MANAGERS: M. Amhad, S. Shields, Malpass

For the first time in years, our basketball team was recognized as a power to contend with. Thanks to the efforts of Coach Harry Smith and Assistant Coach Bernard Zoranski, the 1965 FLYERS won their share of ball games and made it uncomfortable for those to whom they did lose. The boys showed pride, skill, and class. Coupled with spirit and desire, these characteristics made them an exciting team to watch.

All of us were very proud of Joe Slucki who terminated his basketball career by gaining the honor of "top-scorer" in the Valley League. Doug Talley also brought recognition to our school by ending the season as the league's third-highest scorer.

A nucleus of experienced underclassmen promises another fine team in 1966. Our warmest congratulations to Coach Smith, Coach Zoranski, and the 1965 FLYERS!

We proudly mention, also, that the team broke the all-time scoring record for a Forty Fort team, not once, but twice, by soaring over the 100 point mark.

DANCES

THE BIRTH AND GROWTH OF A CLASS

Name: The Class of 1965
Date: December, 1962
Time: Approximately 3:20 p.m.
Place: Forty Fort High School Auditorium
Weight: Approximately 8,575 pounds
Color of eyes: Predominantly blue
Color of hair: Predominantly brown
Size: Rather tiny
Guardians: Miss Joyce Medlock and Mr. Paul Krayner

The above is a simple account of my birth, but the story isn't all there—much more can be told. It is a story of the high hopes and dreams of the people who have brought me honor, who have given me success, who have put me "on my way." I like to call my past three years "Up from Poverty."

I was young, but not spiritless; inexperienced, but willing; penniless, but hopeful; new, but with many friends. In addition to my guardians, four people watched over me carefully. Tom Bellone took the reins that first critical year. Doug Tally assisted Tom, Jerry Schultz assumed the responsibility of expenses incurred or money secured, and Paulette Shepherd kept a careful record of each of those agonizing first steps.

Because I was young and inexperienced, I remained quite inactive that first year—putting in a showing on only two occasions. The first of these was the One-Act Play Contest, in which I presented "Room for One More," starring Jo Ann Chaney and Bob Peters. My second project was a dance titled "April Showers." Le Ann Kay took charge of the arrangements. By the end of the year, I was not much ahead financially, but I had learned much from that old teacher—experience. With eagerness and optimism I awaited the next year.

Early in the fall of 1963, I began to reorganize. This was to be a big year—full of hard work coupled with deep satisfaction. Again Tom Bellone took over, with Ed Gieda assisting. Tom Richards assumed the financial burdens, and Jo Ann Chaney wrote the next chapters of my biography. This year was a year of decision—I had to decide whether to succeed or fail, to work or forget my dreams. Fortunately I made the right decision—I resolved to succeed—and plunged into my work.

The first project in eleventh grade was the Mr. Touchdown Dance. This developed my confidence, and I was "on my way." My entry in the One-Act Play Contest was the delightful comedy "Elizabeth's Young Man," starring Barbara Davies and Jim Angley.

Now a little older and much wiser, I began making my presence felt throughout the whole school. Tom Kelly was elected vice-president of the Student Council and Barbara Davies, vice-president of Y-Teens. In February my scholarship was noted when Jo Ann Chaney, Le Ann Kay, Tom Kelly, Marilyn Moffatt, Ann Somerville, and Marilyn Walsh were inducted into the Bruce G. Blackman Chapter of the National Honor Society. In sports I rated high with seven lettermen in football, six in track, four in basketball, and one in wrestling. Doug Tally was a three letterman. Aesthetically I became well known also. Two musicians, Mary Liguori and Marilyn Walsh, were members of the Pennsylvania All-State Band at Philadelphia. In dramatics I became very ambitious. In mid-March I presented the three-act comedy "More Than Welcome," starring Jo Ann Chaney and Tom Richards. Marilyn Moffatt, as student director, assisted with rehearsals. As in all of my dramatic productions Mr. Thomas Smith became my guiding light. I shall never forget all the understanding and help I received from this faculty adviser. I canvassed the town selling tickets for the play, and the results were encouraging both in my coffers and in the attendance in the auditorium.

Since I needed a large sum of money if I was to have a yearbook, the next projects were chiefly of a fund-raising nature. In the Methodist Church I held a pancake supper. An unusual and well-attended affair, the supper brought more capital within my reach. After a car wash I was no longer impoverished. I had money to grow on and to dream on. However, the next project, my Junior-Senior Prom, nearly drained my resources. The theme was Bali-Hi and featured a huge frieze suspended behind the Rhythm Aces—the fine band that provided the hit songs. In the middle of the gym, beneath a sky of blue and white streamers, was a huge frame pineapple, and the centerpiece of each table was a Hawaiian pineapple. Because the Prom was well attended and very enjoyable, I considered it a success even though I lost money on it. Despite my straitened circumstances, I was not without friends. Members of the faculty arranged for me to take the school census, and I worked zealously to do a good job. Although I was still short of the needed funds, permission was granted for my yearbook. By June I experienced more happiness. I took over the front door when the Class of 1964 had its Senior Day, and by vacation time I had become the proud possessor of a driver's license.

Early fall 1964 saw me convening in the gym under the leadership of Ed Gieda and Jerry Schultz. Tom Richards again handled my fiscal policy. Jo Ann Chaney and Ann Somerville wrote more pages in what began to look like a success story. I kicked off the year with football season, proud that my nine lettermen were the backbone of the team. At the fall dance sponsored by the Class of 1966, Tom Richards was named Mr. Touchdown. Each Friday I led the pep meetings in the person of Jo Ann Chaney and Ellyn Hoyes. Paulette Shepherd captained the spirited majorettes.

My leadership could truly be felt not only in the school, but also in the whole valley. Tom Kelly was president of the Student Council; Ed Gieda, treasurer. Tom earned an additional honor; he was winner of the Voice of Democracy Contest in the West Side area. Ann Somerville took charge of Y-Teens, and Marilyn Walsh was elected Band president. Dianne Cropf was named "Miss Seventeen of Wyoming Valley," and Ann Somerville was crowned "Miss Y-Teen of Wyoming Valley."

Le Ann Kay became a Merit-Semi-Finalist, and new members were added to the Honor Society.

Dramatically it was a "roaring" year. My senior production was "The Mouse That Roared." The cast of "thousands," headed by Diane Meredith and Tom Bellone, presented a vivid example of life in Grand Fenwick. Marilyn Walsh took over the chores of student directing. When the One-Act Play Contest rolled around, Tom Bellone was still in practice to star in "A Girl in Every Port." Bill Federer did the student directing, and I took the award for the best presentation of the evening.

Both school publications felt my presence and vigor. The Red and White, redrafted for new look and appeal, was coedited by Marilyn Moffatt and Le Ann Kay. Barbara Davies and Jo Ann Chaney supervised my story as told in The Fort.

Athletically I again excelled in winter sports. The perennial losing streak of the basketball team was halted by my stalwart lettermen, who were responsible for setting two school records, both in the last game of the season. The first was the highest score in a game (108 points were scored against Luzerne); the other was the highest number of points scored by an individual player in a game (Joe Slucki had 43).

Mindful of my obligations, I took pride in the Easter Program I sponsored for the students and faculty. In late May I was honored at the Junior-Senior Prom. After my academic studies were completed, I turned to social activities—Class Day, Senior Day, and the Class Tea. These affairs provided relaxation and a pleasurable ending to a wonderful year. The Baccalaureate Service on June 6 was a solemn and impressive event. A few days later I marched proudly to the stage and received the diploma that informed everyone I was a graduate of Forty Fort Junior-Senior High School.

* * * * *

My high school days are now over; and though securing an education was an uphill climb most of the way, though it was toil and tears, though it was touch and go, I can't help looking back and fondly remembering the level spots, the many laughs, and the victories I achieved. I have truly come "Up from Poverty," and I can resolutely face those scoffers who thought I'd never make it. They never counted on the determination and iron-will of the more than sixty teenagers who formed me.

Yes, I'm on my way—to a bright and promising future. I vow to make my parents and Alma Mater proud of my accomplishments. To do this, I'll constantly remind myself that cooperation, determination, and effort yield tangible results.

A class was born in 1961 and grew until it reached maturity—graduation. After graduation the Class of 1965 leaves the hallowed halls of Forty Fort Junior-Senior High School, "ON OUR WAY" into a new world—the world of adults. But with us we will take the memories of our years at Forty Fort High preserved in this yearbook.

Mr. Thomas Smith is one man the Class of 1965 will never forget. When we needed guidance and advice for THE FORT or any other class project, Mr. Smith was always willing to share with us his free time. The production of this yearbook would not have been possible without the determination and good humor of Mr. Smith.

At the beginning of our senior year, the financial picture of our class was looking dim. Then Mr. Nelson Kile took over the reins of our treasury and the picture brightened. For his fine supervision we say, "Thank you, Mr. Kile!"

Another important part of a yearbook is the record of the senior class. Without the assistance of Miss Rice the writing of the Class History in the yearbook would have been a difficult task.

We know that it would be impossible to please every member of the student body, but we sincerely hope the majority find THE FORT of 1965 compatible with their expectations.

Bill Baker
 To my bestest good buddy in Biology. Never forget all of the good times we had - especially when we fought about review questions. Be good; take care of yourself and take care of Miss Shack.
